

hospitality design

february/march 2024 hospitalitydesign.com

path forward

the development issue

hd Presenter of expo+ conference

products wallcoverings

Painterly motifs create a dreamlike quality

By Alissa Ponchione

1

2

3

4

5

6

1

Shown here in the Elysian pattern in colorway Autunno, Astek's Odyssey is a series of landscape murals that draw upon heritage and fine art aesthetics. From fantastical jungle scenes to romantic pastoral lands, each unique design is rich with details. ASTEK.COM

2

Featuring a 3D, clay-like surface that is based on original handcarvings created exclusively for Arte, Babylon features the Medjoul pattern. Inspired by date palms, it is offered in four colorways, including Fern (shown). ARTE-INTERNATIONAL.COM

3

Designed by artist Rick Kane for Leftbank Art, Natural Beauty I calls to mind a contemporary watercolor painting thanks to the mélange of pastel hues that transition from blue to pink and green. LEFTBANKART.COM

4

The Tsauri collection from Black Edition emulates the undulating shapes found in modern sculptures interpreting the female form. The Figura pattern (shown) is printed on a finely woven fabric backed with a subtle, metallic ground. BLACKEDITION.COM

5

In Conduit by Maya Romanoff, a proprietary compound is evenly applied onto a durable non-woven substrate, hand-raked, and then rhythmically embossed with a metal conduit pipe. MAYAROMANOFF.COM

6

Informed by old stucco walls, Lona from Brentano is an oversized PVC-free, bleach cleanable Type II olefin composite. Featuring an Osnaburg-backing wallcovering, it comes in nine colorways, including Savanna (shown). BRENTANOFABRICS.COM