

Industry News: The Latest From Manufacturers

From showroom openings to recognitions, we pull together key updates from the hospitality world

Words by: Stephanie Chen

Poliform's its latest mono-brand flagship store in Washington, DC; photo courtesy of Poliform

Maya Romanoff's iconic wallcovering collections are added to the Louvre, Diana Dobin of Valley Forge Fabrics is recognized as the 2024 NEWH ICON of Industry, and more. Here is the latest manufacturer news to know:

Maya Romanoff joins the Louvre's permanent collection

Three of handcrafted wallcovering manufacturer Maya Romanoff's collections—Flexi Mother of Pearl, Mother of Pearl Aphrodite, and Ajiro Fanfare—have been selected to join the permanent collection at the Musée des Arts Décoratifs in the Louvre Palace in Paris. This milestone coincides with Maya Romanoff's 55th anniversary. "This recognition is a testament to our commitment to pushing the boundaries of sustainable design and craftsmanship, and we are thrilled to see our creations showcased alongside the world's most esteemed decorative arts," says Maya Romanoff CEO Joyce Romanoff. "Maya would be over the moon. As an artist and an innovator in the design world, this is the ultimate recognition."

Artistic Tile unveils new showroom in Paramus

Artistic Tile, a luxury tile and stone retailer, has debuted a showroom within the Paramus Design Center. This relocation marks a significant milestone for the family owned and operated company as it expands its presence, offering an enhanced experience to clients in Paramus and the surrounding areas. The new showroom offers an extensive display of materials, including natural stone, glass, ceramic, and more.